PROGRESS:

Clean halls lay between the empty classrooms of the school, waiting for students to return to continue their progress through school life.

An empty locker proved not all studying was completed at school—especially near the end of a grading period.

A grafitti-covered music arrangement, play dialogue, or field trip itinerary represented long hours of determination.

A discarded season ticket, athletic program, or wilted homecoming mum held memories of an action-packed game, a fighting team.

A single student integrated into the exhilaration of scholastic competition and community involvement denoted the practical application of all aspects of education.

BEFORE 8:15:
time between
arrival, homeroom
filled with activity

Arriving via a crowded city bus, emerging from the frustration of being involved in a traffic jam, or approaching the building on foot, students prepared to follow the routine of a new school day. Activity centered around the book store, at Exit 5, or in the cafeteria where pupils waited for school to begin.

Suddenly, the 8 o'clock bell rang, and students crowded into stairways, discarded unnecessary articles at their lockers, and fought their way through the congested hallways to homeroom, contemplating an incomplete theme assignment, the dissection of a frog, Mr. Brown's U.S. History dramatizations.

CLASSES:
new homeroom
procedure begins
daily schedule

Each school day was initiated with a homeroom period which convened from 8:15 until 8:30. (This time change was scheduled to accommodate a larger enrollment and more double period classes.)

After the P.A. announcements were read and homeroom procedures were completed, students passed to their respective classes as IBM programs dictated. While the Viet Nam conflict continued, college unrest was perpetuated, and a vital senatorial campaign was perused by Hartke and Roudebush, pupils were taught the fundamental concepts of education which will equip them with the ability to combat the growing complexities of tomorrow's society.

LUNCH HALL: UNIQUE

40-MINUTE PERIOD

IS ACTIVE, IMPOSES

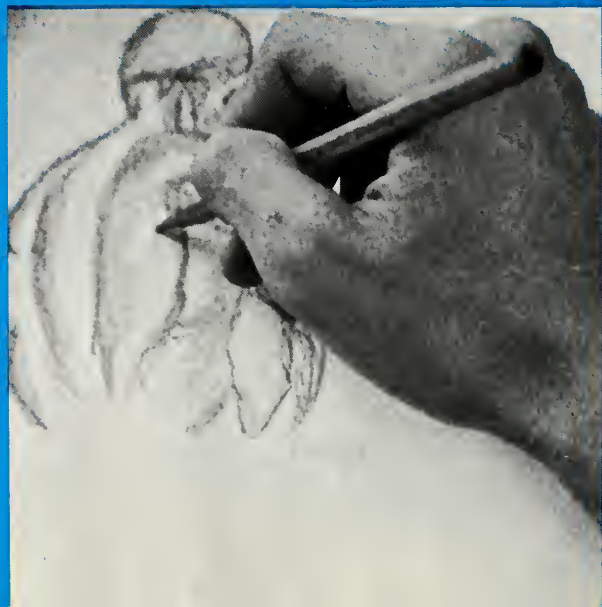

FEW RESTRICTIONS

As early as 10 o'clock or as late as 1:45, 2600 students, teachers, and administrators converged on the cafeteria. Definitely unlike any other period in a student's schedule, his lunch hall imposed no seating charts, no conversation bans, and no homework assignments. During the 40 minutes which are generally conceded to be the shortest of the day, students glanced at class notes, conversed with friends, or used the pay phones before submitting to the routine of the afternoon schedule.

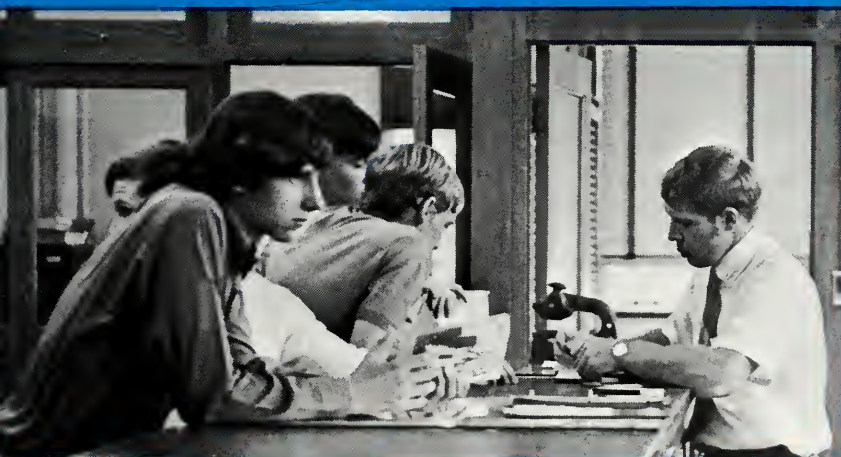

CLASSES:
vocational,
academic courses
enrich careers

Onto the patio came streams of students through exit 10; lunch was over and time to go to class. Various courses in English, math, social studies, and science were required for graduation of all students. Those who planned for their formal education to terminate in high school majored in business, industrial arts, or home economics which prepared them for a future career. Howe students welcomed having a free ninth hour since they could leave before the majority of students and teachers. But it was very discouraging when they were detained after ninth hour for a conference.

AFTER 3:15:
 participation
 brings enjoyment, honor, satisfaction

School activities reached all students from those interested in having fun to those wishing to help the school. During the day they assisted in the office, library, or on stage as they learned through experience. Dealing with student needs and desires was the Student Council. Clubs, vocational or interest, provided afternoon activities.

Dances, plays, the musical, PRV, and banquets were held in the early evening—a time to enjoy, honor, and participate. Activities gave students the opportunities to broaden their lives to face similar situations in the future.

ATHLETICS:
winning season
depicts student body enthusiasm

How could a school have achieved a winning athletic season? Many weeks before the first game or meet, the team was chosen and training began with the fundamentals. Whether it was a football game or a golf match, the competition with other schools and intramurals created the enthusiasm to strive to perfect team skills. Support for a victory from the cheerleaders and other students encouraged the athletes to perform to their maximum capacity to obtain a winning season.

SENIORS:
class activities
create lasting memories

Rain, fog, and the enthusiastic sound of "SENIORS" on Senior Day, June 4, 1970, opened the year on which the class of 1971 would often look back. Senior homeroom and activities, like the class play and party, were finally theirs. Anxiety mounted for the decisions involving college applications or job opportunities. Spring brought Senior Activities Week which included tricycle races, pie-eating contests, and the "Senior Stairs." Graduation and the prom brought a time to look back at the last four years of learning and to look forward to those open in adult life.

EDUCATION

Education required long hours of preparation, concentration, and class participation in a minimum of 4 and a maximum of 5 1/2 courses each day. Each member of the student body was given the opportunity to select courses from the school's 12 departments and the 247 classes that were offered by them.

Beginning with the prerequisites of more advanced education, each student progressed from one level of achievement to the next area of accomplishment. After accumulating at least 32 credits, students graduated, better prepared to face the pressures of competition created by the expanding world of business and technology and the challenges of college lives.

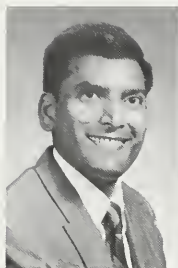

DIRECTORS:
new boys' dean,
assistant dean,
added to staff

Outside activities helped each administrator to do his job more efficiently.

Mr. Thomas Stirling, Principal, was executive secretary of the Indiana Student Council. Besides being in charge of student programming, Mr. Frank Tout worked on his Doctorate degree.

Mr. Charles Ruschhaupt was in charge of finances and co-sponsor of Howe's Student Council with Mrs. Patricia Alexander, who served as Dean of Girls. Mr. Raymond Riley became the new Dean of Boys.

Assisting the deans and teaching orientation classes were Mrs. Margaret Benson and Mr. Joe Lewis. Miss Maryon Welch moved from junior-high to freshman counselor. Mr. Thomas Totten, Director of Guidance, was also the counselor helping seniors with graduation activities.

D. Assisting the Dean of Boys, Mr. Frank "Joe" Lewis checks the attendance and conference cuts.

E. In addition to taking care of discipline, Mr. Raymond Riley, Dean of Boys, also arranges for student tutors.

OFFICE, COOKS, CUSTODIANS:
workers keep howe functional

Howe's office staff assisted students by working in the bookstore, library, senior office, and gym, English and music departments. Also, they helped take care of registration, attendance, and the secretarial work for the administrators. Custodians were always busy. They swept halls during classes, washed windows, and repaired broken equipment throughout the building. Many of their jobs were done after school hours. Every evening, the custodians cleaned the classrooms and the restrooms. Every Howe student depended on the cafeteria staff. Each day, the cooks arrived before school and prepared the food they served for lunch. Several of the cafeteria workers were mothers of students and former graduates.

Howe had two parent-teacher groups: the PTA and The Men's 400 Club. These two groups have similar goals, and they often worked cooperatively. The PTA was under the direction of President Mrs. Joan Thomas. A new project sponsored by the PTA was a Tenderloin Fry; this event took place the night of the Football Homecoming. The PTA and Men's 400 Club worked at the concession stands during the games. An annual project sponsored by the Men's 400 Club was the selling of Howe license plates.

Both groups supported the student body by providing new facilities, such as the Universal Weight System the Men's 400 Club donated.

creativity

Twenty-eight teachers under the direction of first year English Department Head Mr. Bruce Beck expanded the concept of advanced placement classes.

This concept involved more concentration on logical thinking and analysis of literature. Also, this year a plan to aid students in overcoming reading difficulties was introduced by Mr. Beck. New members to the staff were Mrs. Linda James, Mr. Steve Sirmin, Mrs. Marjorie Spice, Miss Cindy Starker and Mrs. Ann Williams.

Distinguishing this department from similar ones was an award from the National Council of Teachers of English for "evidence of excellence in its instructional program, as revealed by its apparent contribution to the high quality of writing and the literary awareness of its students honored with the 1970 National Council of Teachers of English Award."

LIBRARY: new machines aid students with research

Howe's library was the central location of the school's research materials.

Pupils relied on the library when writing term or research papers, which are required of regular fall English courses.

Another part of the Howe library, room 126, was equipped with tape recorders, record players, and the Readers Guide to Periodical Literature.

Occasionally students found that the library was a center for animal rehabilitation.

Mrs. Dorothy Smith often cared for injured and sick cats and dogs and placed them in good homes.

Maintaining the library with useful and pertinent information was the job of head librarian Mrs. Smith.

SOCIAL STUDIES: department adds urban affairs

Students enrolled in the Social Studies Department this year noticed several changes that had been made. The staff was expanded by the addition of two new teachers, Mr. Dan Meek, and Mr. Charles Harris. Courses offered this year included Sociology, Psychology, U. S. History, World History, Government, and a new course, Urban Affairs, taught by Mr. William Farrell. This new course studied contemporary problems and was divided into three parts, six weeks each. For the first six weeks students studied American urban history. They concentrated on questions such as the origin of modern problems and reasons why solutions have not been implemented. The rest of the semester was devoted to the discussion of poverty, crime, and drugs. Films and guest speakers helped students evaluate proposed solutions.

MOCK ELECTION; returns show divided victory

Each fall in the Government classes of the Social Studies Department, the daily routine of reading, discussing the material, and taking tests turns to one of making posters, giving speeches, and running for political offices in the Mock Election. Miss Mary McLane and Mr. Ron Finkbner were the faculty advisors of the Federalist and Nationalist parties. Classes were divided into precincts and students ran for offices on both the city-county and state levels. Only Government classes delved into the workings of a political election; however, the U.S. History classes also participated by voting in the general election. For the fourth straight year the "Feds" won the majority of state offices with Paul Thomas being elected Governor. Nationalist Mike Becher won the Lt. Governor position.

Because the emphasized objectives of the language department were comprehension and communication, Michael Becher's summer trip to Mexico initiated an active year for those involved with the Foreign Language Department. Mike was one of twenty-nine students in the program given an opportunity to visit a country whose language they study.

Advanced courses were offered in French, Latin, and Spanish.

Miss Mary Thumma led the department staff of six teachers.

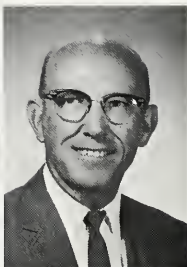

New to the department this year were Mrs. Joan McAllister and Mr. Harry Preston, who also taught math and sponsored the Hi-Y Club.

Mrs. McCallister was sponsor of the "Hornet Honey's", the girls' drill team.

General Math 3 and 4 were added to the department curriculum. Howe teachers participated in a city program to prepare study aids for students of Basic Math.

During the summer months, Howe math teachers engaged in several educational and recreational endeavors. Miss Nancy McMillan visited the Great Northwest, while Mr. Robert Mitchell worked for the City Park Department as Supervisor of Wading Pools. Mrs. Pauline Craig flew to Europe where she visited six countries including, Oberammergau, Germany, home of the Passion Play. SCIENCE:

reorganized

Howe students experienced several changes this year in the Science Department. Mr. Schuyler Geller, who was recently graduated from I. U., taught Chemistry and General Science. Mr. Harold Eddleman, a 1954 Purdue graduate who has since earned his doctorate in biophysics, taught Biology. There were 14 teachers under the direction of Mr. William Smith, who was back for his sixth year as department head. To accommodate the many students enrolled in double period classes, a new system was implemented. The words "Monday, Tuesday, and every other Wednesday" were frequently spoken in the biology, chemistry, and physics laboratories. In class, students observed and participated in experiments which gave them an opportunity to discover answers to their many science questions.

BUSINESS:

Howe's Business Department's objective was the preparation of students for the business world. Shorthand and Typing, two courses which were popular electives, trained pupils for secretarial positions as well as advanced their proficiency in study skills.

Two subjects previously not offered at Howe were added to the curriculum. They included Business Opportunities, taught by department head Mr. George Jackson, and Accounting 10/12, taught by Mr. John Skene.

While Business Opportunities was primarily a freshman course, enrollment in Accounting 10/12 was open to the entire student body. Instruction was also offered in Business Law, Bookkeeping, and Salesmanship. Directing these classes were the 15 teachers of the department which included new instructors Mrs. Jan Killion, Mr. Steve Mobley, and Mr. Kenneth Hanna.

ROTC: department acquires m-14 rifles

Receiving instruction in the correct method of cleaning and firing rifles, ROTC cadets gained experience that prepared them for accepting military responsibilities. This year, ROTC participants were able to practice with more highly-precisioned equipment because of the acquisition of M-14 rifles and the use of a 3.5 rocket launcher. Each student enrolled in ROTC was taught to be proficient in accepting and executing directives as well as drilled on the principles of the Military Code of Conduct and the Battalion Chain of Command. Assisting M/Sgt. Harold Ecktmann, Sgt. Jerome Baker, and the cadet staff were the six ROTC sponsors. HOME EC: air-conditioning in new addition popular Clothing, Foods, Family Living, Home Nursing, and Housing and Management were the elective courses offered by the Home Economics Department. Headed by Mrs. Doris Cartwright for the third year, the home economics teachers stressed nutrition, buying of foods, good grooming, and fashion guides. Portable classroom areas provided additional facilities for foods laboratories. Classes in Family Living, Housing and Management, and Home Nursing were also held in Howe's newest addition. Air-conditioning was a popular feature of the new rooms. Although no new teachers were added, Mrs. Josinah Mosiman, who previously taught both English and home economics, taught only home economics this year.

INDUSTRIAL

ARTS: equipment aids in developing skills

Orientating high school students into the industrial and technological world of today was one of the many jobs performed by the Industrial Arts Department. Mr. Lyle O. Nave, who also taught printing, served as head of the department. New this year was Mr. Saeed Akhtar, who taught the metal shop courses. Each year architectural students in the Advanced Drafting classes are given the chance to enter the annual country-wide architectural drawing contest. Senior Dan Hartill received the majority of the honors with his first place entry in the 'A' division.

The department performed certain services for the school. A few examples were printing office forms, programs for school events, and tickets for dances. Repair service for desks and lockers was also provided.

DRIVER EDUCATION: ten cars in use during summer

Headed for the fifth year by Mr. James Stutz, the Physical Education, Driver Ed and Health Department offered Freshman and Advanced Gym, Health, Driver Ed, and Alcohol and Narcotics. One year of gym is required of all students for graduation. Team, individual, and dual sports are taught as well as gymnastics. Rhythmic are taught to all freshman girls' classes. Additional semesters of gym are offered. Health, which is held in the stadium, is also required of all students. Driver Education enrolled 40 during the regular semesters. Primarily a summer course, there were 10 cars in use during summer school. Mr. Charles Fitzgerald, who formerly taught at School 62, and Mrs. Sandra Moreland, who received both her B.S. and M.S. from Indiana State University, joined the department.

ART: department purchases new equipment

Howe's Art Department offered all elective courses.

These courses began with Craft Arts and then, for those majoring or interested in art, the department offered advanced classes in drawing. Heading the Art Department was Mr. F. M. Howard who was assisted by teachers Mr. James Lynch, and Mr. Charles Pirtle.

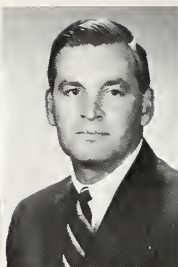

Miss Pamela Grey, a Howe graduate of the Class of 1961, filled the vacancy in Craft Arts until the permanent teacher, Mrs. Celia Yohman, came to the Art Department.

This year, the Art Department received additional equipment in the form of new desks.

These desks provided a smooth surface for the students to work on. Mr. Lynch, who was recognized for his outstanding artwork, won first prize at the Indiana State Fair for his still life painting.

MUSIC:

Concerts, football games, Rotary Club, and the annual musical were a few of the many activities the Music Department participated in. Underclassmen elected Chorus, B-Band, or B-Orchestra and from these were chosen for Choir, Chorales, A-Band, A-Orchestra, or Boys' or Girls' Ensembles. Music majors were able to compose their own arrangements and gain greater understanding in music theory and appreciation. The department, headed by Mr. Frank Watkins, included Mr. Robert Bramblett, Mr. Thomas Lewis, chorus teachers, Mr. Robert Beckley, orchestra director and Mr. Louis McEnderfer, director of the band. Mrs. Janet McNeill was accompanist for the chorus classes and secretary for the department.

A. The band's performance at all home games creates greater enthusiasm for Howe students.

B. As at all home games, the band, under the direction of Mr. Louis McEndrfer, accompanies the "Hornet Honeys."

C. The choir, consisting of only select students who display musical talent, rehearses for one of its upcoming performances.

D. Mrs. Marie Hogan, an I.U. student teacher, gains experience by directing a choir session.

EXPERIENCE:

Progress through participation in extra-curricular activities was an important aspect of student life. Induction into honor societies signified outstanding scholastic achievement while membership in a vocationally oriented club, a service organization, or an interest group gave students an opportunity to share the experience of learning in an atmosphere of involvement. Students who were interested in the dramatic arts performed with vocal or instrumental ensembles, portrayed characters in theatrical productions, or worked behind the scenes as members of the stage crew. Through these experiences participants acquired new disciplines and insights.

NHS: organization acquires new sponsor

In order to be eligible for the National Honor Society a student must display outstanding traits in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. A candidate must rank in the upper ten percent of his junior class or the upper fifteen percent of his senior class. On "Tap Day" the names of the candidates were announced at a special assembly. Parents were invited to the formal initiation the following week. The Dean of Boys, Mr. Raymond Riley, was the sponsor, and Joe Easterday officiated as president, while Sandy Garrett assisted as vice-president. Acting as secretary and treasurer were Marcia Thomas and Chris Brandt, respectively. Tutoring Howe students was the primary activity of the members of the National Honor Society.

HONORARIES:

Students who were enrolled in their fifth semester of Spanish and had at least a 6.0 grade average were inducted into the Spanish Honor Society. Tutoring other language students was the main objective of the honorary. Latin Club members participated in various activities including initiating new members with a traditional Roman slave sale, singing Christmas carols in Latin, and listening to guest speakers. Three students represented Howe at the National Latin Convention held last August at the University of Ohio. Members of Howe's chapter of Quill and Scroll, a national journalism honorary, were initiated in a candle-light ceremony at the Publications Banquet held in May. Beginning this year, the members of Quill and Scroll compiled material for PEN POINTS, Howe's literary magazine.

QUILL AND SCROLL: LEFT TO RIGHT—Chris Brandt, President; Joe Easterday, Jane Stephenson, Louise Farmer, Kathy Phelps, Vice-president; Lilly Quinones, Barbara Hahn, Jan Cowgill, Secretary and Treasurer. Editor of PENPOINTS was Lilly Quinones, member of Quill and Scroll. The group's new sponsor was Miss Marilyn Jones, a BSU graduate.

Two new members being initiated into Quill and Scroll are Jan Cowgill and Barbara Hahn. The candles represent the light of knowledge.

Conducting SHS activities were Mike Becher, Exofficio Member of the Board; Phyllis Lee, secretary; Larry Hallett, President; and Barbara Hahn, Vice-president.

AWARDS: scholarship, citizenship, honored

This spring the outstanding students at Howe were honored at an assembly at which Mr. Charles Ruschhaupt and Mr. Frank Watkins presided. One senior girl and one senior boy were elected by the senior class to receive the DAR Award. The American Legion Good Citizenship Award was given to the outstanding junior boy and girl. The Kiwanis Award was presented to the top student in each department, and certificates were awarded to the senior honor majors. The Kiwanis Club also cited the outstanding boy and girl in Student Council. The Industrial Arts department presented the "Mr. Vertrees Award" for the most talented woodworker. Honors were also presented to the leading boy and girl journalist, gymnast, and thespian.

Dawn Moxey is this year's recipient of the DAR Award. This award was given for outstanding service, patriotism, and leadership.

Alice Noxon was awarded the Betty Crocker Home-maker Award. The contestants for the prize took a test given by General Mills.

Senior Mike Becher was chosen by the Indiana University Honors Program to spend the summer studying Spanish in Mexico.

The Indianapolis Womens' Service Club presents the Altrusa Award to the top girl scholar in the junior class. Barbara Hahn was the 1970 winner at Howe.

From the nominations of each junior homeroom, Dave Hagy and Vicky Nicholson were chosen by the faculty to receive the American Legion Good Citizen Award.

Seniors who gained recognition in the National Merit Scholarship competition, held on February 14, 1970, are (STANDING) Dave Zimmerman, Chuck Deeds, (SITTING) Becky McWilliams, Dave Hagy, finalist, and Cheryl Walker.

Those members of the Class of 1971 who were in the upper 1% of the class of approximately 465 students were David Hagy, Nancy Smith, Chris Brandt, Tracy Ellis, and Sandy Garrett. Academic standing was determined by a computation of the students' grade point averages.

Nancy Smith, Cheryl Walker, and Carol Black attended Girls' State. The representatives were chosen by the Girls' Dean and supported by the Irvington American Legion Auxiliaries.

Attending Hoosier Boys' State during the first week of summer vacation, Chris Brandt learned the principles of our Indiana government which aided him in Howe's Mock Election.

STUDENT COUNCIL: members attend elkart convention

Taking charge of a large number of the special events that were held this year, the Student Council kept the student body informed, enthused, and unified. Dave Rogers served as president, keeping the Council meetings organized and answering questions brought up by the representatives. At the fall installation of officers, Paul Thomas became the new vice-president; Cheryl Mee, secretary; and Dave Kroy, treasurer. Mrs. Patricia Alexander, Duan of Girls, served as advisor along with Vice-Principal Mr. Charles Ruschhaupt. Mr. Arnold Nelson and Mr. David Miller were the faculty sponsors. At the State Convention for Student Councils held in Elkart on October 17, Council members were given the opportunity to learn how other schools operate.

STUDENT COUNCIL: members present skits to seniors

Second periods were scheduled for Council meetings which provided time for group planning and discussion of suggestions proposed by students. Money was earned by selling spirit ribbons and tickets to the Winter Wonderland Dance and the Senior-Faculty game. The Council was also given a percentage of the money taken in from the pay telephones. Improvement of the public address system in the gymnasium and the purchase of a lighting system for the alley along the east-side of the building were ideas discussed by the Council. Boosting school spirit in senior homeroom for weekend games, Council members wrote catchy new words to popular songs for skits that succeeded in livening up Friday mornings.

One of the many activities sponsored by the Student Council was the 1970 Football Homecoming. The "before and after" of a typical student is depicted in this float constructed by the senior class. The faculty, Student Council, and each class originated their own float to contribute to the half-time show.

During the summer Dave Rogers attended a Student Council Workshop held in Hot Springs, Arkansas. This enabled him to exchange views with other students and prepared him for the duties as president of the Howe Council.

During "Anti-Vandalism Week" in February, several members of the Student Council traveled to surrounding grade schools presenting skits on the wrongs of destroying school property.

STUDENT COUNCIL: members sponsor informal dances

Student Council representatives were instrumental in organizing and presenting three informal dances.

The Winter Wonderland Dance was held in cooperation with members of GAA on December 16, 1970. The GAA arranged the crowning ceremonies and was in charge of refreshments while the Student Council handled ticket sales.

The Winter Wonderland Dance traditionally begins the celebration of the Christmas season at Howe.

Santa's appearance and the crowning of Gary Conway as Winter Wonderland King were the highlights of the holiday dance.

The Student Council also sponsored two sock-hops. These were held in the gym after the Lawrence game on December 12, 1970, and as a part of the Homecoming festivities after the January 29 basketball game against Marshall.

Joe McColley, whose group provided music for the Winter Wonderland Dance, expresses great emotion as he performs a popular ballad.

In the midst of the crowd attending the sock-hop held after the Lawrence game, Peggy Endicott dances to the sounds of a live band.

Surrounded by students attending the Winter Wonderland Dance, Santa Claus (alias Health teacher Mr. Richard Harpold) throws candy canes to the crowd. Later during his visit, pupils had an opportunity to sit on Santa's lap and "chat" with him about their expectations for Christmas day. This affair, open to all members of the student body, was Howe's only after-school dance; it was held from 3:30-4:45.

A seven-member group known as "Our Band" played for both Student Council-sponsored sock-hops. Both of these dances were held in the gym as after-game activities. Here, band member Randy Deane performs a drum solo.

During the crowning ceremonies, GAA president Julie Jones congratulates Gary Conway for having received the title of "King of the Winter Wonderland Dance." He was selected from eight candidates by those attending.

YEARBOOK:
deadlines, overtime keep staff busy

Twenty-two students comprised the 1970-71 HILLTOPPER staff.

The staff spent many long hours after school, on Saturdays, and during vacations cropping pictures and writing copy, captions, and headlines.

There was always a last minute rush to complete HILLTOPPER pages and meet yearbook company deadlines.

During yearbook study periods, parties were held to celebrate "happy deadline completion day."

In the fall, the staff revealed their "talent" by putting on skits in the annual Publications Assembly.

They created, decorated, and arranged two dances, the "Brown and Gold," and the "Turn-About-Twirl."

Jan Cowgill, Editor, and Louise Farmer, Associate Editor, headed the staff.

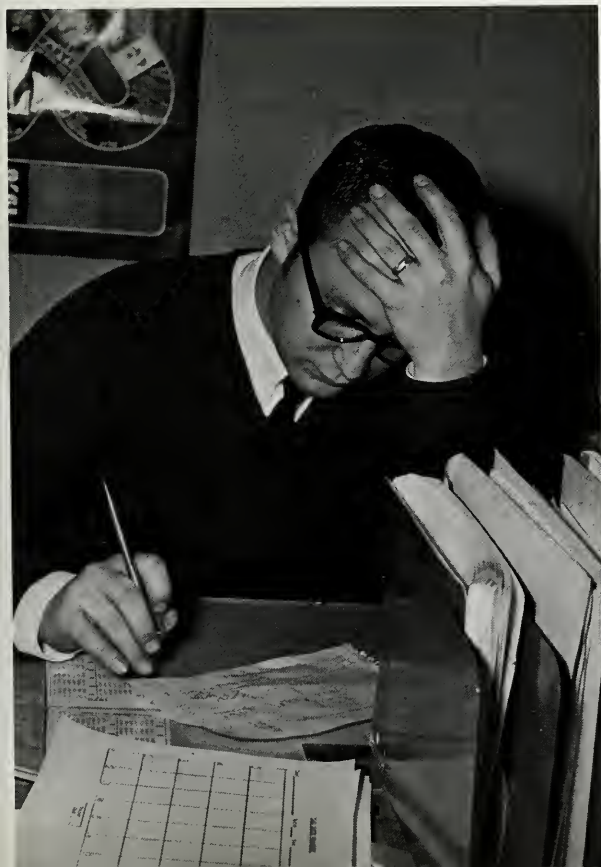

Editor-In-Chief Jan Cowgill, along with Louise Farmer, Associate Editor, attended a high school yearbook institute at the University of Minnesota, where they learned new techniques and procedures in yearbooking. Here, Jan types and "edits" a piece of copy written for the Cross Country page.

In order to approve each piece of work done by the staff members, Mr. Kuonen, HILLTOPPER Advisor, must put in many hours after school. Here, he wearily ponders a headline.

TOWER: paper adds
"tune-in,"
classified-ads

Co-Editors of the Howe TOWER, Barbara Hahn and Kathy Phelps, attended journalism clinics during the summer.

Barbara was a student at the Ball State High School Journalism Workshop; Kathy was enrolled in several classes at the Syracuse High School Press Institute.

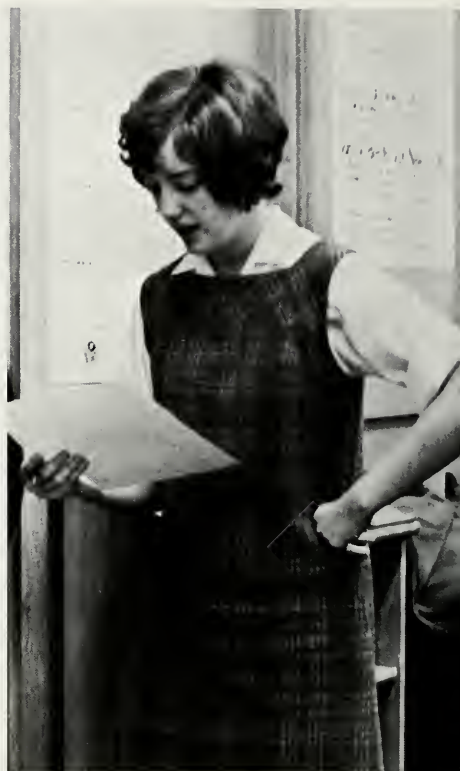

In order to maintain a consistent editorial policy, an Editorial Board, which held weekly meetings, was established.

A question and answer column, "Tower Tune-In" was created to answer student questions concerning school activities. Also initiated in the TOWER was a classified-ads column.

Reporters were assigned "beats," to cover current events in each of the school's 12 departments. The News Bureau was responsible for submitting articles to the teen divisions of city newspapers. Miss Marilyn Jones served as the new advisor.

Barbara Hahn, Co-Editor, checks a page assignment sheet to see if all reporters have submitted articles on events they had been assigned to cover for the paper.

After receiving page proofs from the printer, junior Debbie West, Page Two Editor, informs Miss Marilyn Jones, TOWER Advisor, that an article is too long for the space allowed for it on the layout. Debbie must now decide whether to edit the copy or revise the page layout to accommodate the story.

quiz team sets
scoring records

Bob Eckert, Paul Gerzon, Mark Reasoner, and Albert Rossi comprised Howe's Quiz Team. These students were selected from twenty contestants.

Winning sixty-eight to fifty-two over Park Tudor started the team's season off with hopes of future victories. The purpose of the Debate Team was to encourage class members to participate in inter-school debates with schools from all over the state.

The team was made up of twenty students, out of which four were selected to participate in sectional debate matches. Gary Baker, Doug May, Steve Morgan, and Albert Rossi were the four students selected for these matches.

To become a member of the National Forensic League one must have accumulated twenty-five points through participation in speech or debate meets.

Howe's Quiz Team members Paul Gerzon, Robert Eckert, Mark Reasoner, and Albert Rossi challenge the members of Park Tudor's Quiz Team. All members listen as emcee of "Exercise in Knowledge," Rob Stone, questions the teams. The Howe team won 68—52. Mr. Ronald Finkbner sponsored the Quiz Team.

During a Wednesday practice meet of the National Forensic League in room 169, President Steve Morgan presents his arguments to Albert Rossi. At the table, Gary Baker awaits the opportunity to present his rebuttle to his opponent. Mr. Steven Briggs sponsors the National Forensic League and the Debate Team.

Gary Baker states his arguments during a National Forensic League meeting. The national topic of debate this year was Resolved: That the federal government should finance, administer, and control pollution in the U.S.

During the winter, water sports were definitely limited, but boys active in Hi-Y have the accommodations of the East-side Y available for meetings. At the February 16 meeting, Walter Jerald, Mike Venne, Gilbert Ernst, and Jeff Goddard warm-up in preparation for participation in medley and free-style relays.

TRI-HI-Y: FRONT ROW—Carol Robards, Patty Danner, Anita Brydon, Dawn Moxey, Roxanna Long, Cheryl Walker. SECOND ROW—Connie Thompson, Susie Bright, Beth Reintjes, Marti Hawkins, Suzette Boulais, Rebecca Caldwell. THIRD ROW—Cathy Thompson, Mary Stewart, Joyce Sprinkle, Susie Higginbotham, Nancy Collins, Sandy Showalter, Debbie Hartle. An activity undertaken by the members of Tri-Hi-Y was bowling.

Mr. Harry Preston, sponsor of Hi-Y, referees a basketball game involving Hi-Y members Gary Blessing, Steve Leonard, Ralph Merriman, and Ron Brown. Ron is being forced out-of-bounds by his opponents.

VOCATIONAL CLUBS: fta visits state university

Under the direction of Miss Yvonne Peak, Mrs. Denise Eaton, and Mr. Dave Miller, members of Future Business Leaders of America explored the world of business and the many fields of employment open to qualified personnel upon graduation from high school. Miss Marilyn Naylor sponsored the Home Economics Club which included girls who were enrolled in Home Ec courses. Members of this organization made Christmas tray favors for patients at Community Hospital. Events planned for members of the Future Teachers of America, sponsored by Miss Patricia Fitzpatrick, included plans for a field trip to a state university to investigate the requirements for entrance to a school of education. During meetings, members studied the history and development of the Indiana public school system.

Trying to find new information which will aid in his research of the field of banking, John Braun practices opening a safe.

Liliana Quinones, President of the Future Teachers of America, speaks to the club members about the various techniques of grade-school teaching.

Senior Dawn Moxey and Future Business Leaders sponsor, Mrs. Denise Eaton, listen intently to one of the many guest speakers which frequent the club meetings.

students research

Extra-curricular science clubs offered a freedom of expressing one's ideas through research of past discoveries and experimentation with new ones. Sponsored by Mr. Harold Eddleman, the Science Club toured the Bell Telephone building and the Butler Observatory. Members continued research on the cure of a virus, a project which Mr. Eddleman began with students at another school. To report on the current events taking place in the world of science, members of Atom Dust wrote a monthly newsletter which featured a science crossword puzzle. Miss Jerry Motley advised the students with the paper. Mr. James Yarber sponsored the Astro Rocket Club whose members studied astronomy and the space program.

During a club meeting, Mr. Charles Eddleman, sponsor of Howe's Science Club and Biology teacher, discusses plans for upcoming Science Club activities with club member Sam Taylor. Mr. Eddleman, who was new at Howe this year, is involved in research for the cure of a virus.

CLUBS: history club reorganizes activities

Howe's Chess Club became a member of the newly-organized Central Indiana Chess Association. Member teams played nine regularly-scheduled matches. During practice sessions, Mr. Jack Weaver, sponsor, assisted players in perfecting their moves and planning strategy for the matches.

Miss Nancy McMillan was the new sponsor of the Subset Club, an organization for freshman enrolled in Algebra. This club, designed to develop interest in advanced math courses, held bi-monthly meetings. One activity that members participated in was the construction of geometrical ornaments for the Senior Christmas tree.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Arnold Nelson, the History Club was revived after a year of inactivity. Members took field trips in conjunction with their discussions of current events and historical occurrences.

Dede Dobson, History Club President, conducted the clubs activities during the centennial anniversary of Irvington.

During the Subset Club Christmas Party, Mrs. Mary Russell watches as Miss Nancy McMillan, Sponsor, opens a gift for the club members.

Paul Gerzon, playing number four on the Chess Team, contemplates his next move in a match against a rival school. The meets, sponsored by Mr. Weaver, were played on Thursdays.

SERVICE:

volunteers assist with tickets, films,
clerical duties

From a small booth at the entrance to the stadium, the front door of the gym, or the ticket window located in the auditorium lobby, Business Managers sold tickets for home games and dramatic and musical productions.

Under the direction of Mr. David Stahly, these students also volunteered to serve as ushers and kept detailed attendance records for all school functions.

Assisting deans, department heads, the school nurse and the bookstore manager, Office Messengers delivered messages, typed and mimeographed school notices, sorted mail, and checked daily attendance lists.

Sponsored by Mr. Richard Hammond, members of the Audio-Visual Club coordinated a film schedule, delivered films to classrooms, and operated the public address system during assemblies and homeroom periods.

AUDIO-VISUAL: TOP TO BOTTOM Charles Hartle, Mary Sullivan, Warren Kemble. Responsible for maintaining all audio-visual equipment, these three students learned the correct method of operating and repairing projectors.

In preparation for taking a roll of advanced sale tickets to the bookstore, Gloria Gentry, a business manager, records the exact number and price of tickets available for sale.

ASSEMBLIES: special activities program provides mini-courses

A new innovation, a bi-monthly activities program, was introduced to the second semester schedule. The mini-courses, constructed around student interests, began in February and built variety into the convocation series. Eleven other assemblies were scheduled during the year, beginning with the Student Council—Publications assembly held in the stadium. The music department presented its annual Christmas assembly on December 18. Mr. and Mrs. Timotheus Carson presented a portion of their program, "A Glimpse into the Heart of a Black Man." Pep sessions before key games helped boost school spirit and helped relieve pre-game tensions.

MUSICAL:
"hello, dolly!"
premieres for howe community

"Hello, Dolly!," after its first release in the Irvington area, was presented by the Howe Music Department on March 25, 26, and 27. The musical centered around a New York matchmaker, Mrs. Dolly Levi, who planned to keep her wealthiest client, feed-store owner Horace Vandergelder, for herself. Dolly found some trouble in winning Mr. Vandergelder because he planned to propose to a widowed millineress, Mrs. Irene Molloy. Horace decided not to marry her, when he found his two clerks hiding in her hat shop. Dolly and Horace were played by Bobbi Bergdoll and Gary Conway. Supporting actors were: Steve Applegate, Ambrose; Donna Brinson, Ermengarde; Steve Morgan, Cornelius; Greg Goodwin, Barnaby; Marilyn Poynter, Mrs. Molloy; and Debbie Kelly, Minnie Fay.

Ambrose and Ermengarde are forced to enter a dance contest at the Harmonia Gardens Restaurant to prove their independence.

PRINCIPAL DIRECTORS FOR "HELLO, DOLLY!": SEATED—Mrs. Sandra Moreland, choreography; Mrs. Janet McNeill, costumes. STANDING—Mr. Thomas Lewis and Mr. Robert Bramblett, vocal coaches; Mr. Robert Beckley, orchestra; Mr. Frank Watkins, principal music director; Mr. Charles Pirtle, stage and scenery.

After Dolly explains that the only fair thing to do is to have dinner with Cornelius and Barnaby, Mrs. Molloy and Minnie strut down Fourteenth Street with them trying to prove that they "got elegance." As dinner progresses, Cornelius finds himself falling in love with Mrs. Malloy, and Barnaby soon realizes that he, too, is beginning to understand how wonderful love can be.

"HELLO, DOLLY!" FEMALE LEADS: FRONT ROW—Marilyn Poynter, Mrs. Malloy; Bobbi Bergdoll, Mrs. Dolly Levi. SECOND ROW—Debbie Kelley, Minnie Fay; Debbie Wynn, Ernestina; and Donna Brinson, Ermengarde.

PRV:
miss brown
directs '71
variety show

Howe's 1971 Pleasant Run Varieties presented 30 acts by its students. Seniors Steve Applegate and Alice Noxon served as Master and Mistress of Ceremonies for the annual variety show. Among the acts in the show were "Motorcycle Song" by Jerry Spicklemire, "A Time For Us" by Steve Morgan and the String Ensemble, "Let the Sunshine In" from the rock musical "Hair", and various other presentations by musical and gymnastic groups. Sound equipment was operated by Jim Murphy. Ron Meadows and Paula Dickenson headed the stage crew and make-up crew, respectively. Miss Janice Brown directed the show for the first year. Assisting Miss Brown were Mr. Schuyler Geller, Mrs. Sandra Moreland, and Mrs. Ann Williams.

Donna Brinson, a member of the Girls' Octet sings "Both Sides Now," a folk song, during the second act of the PRV.

Master and Mistress of Ceremonies, Steve Applegate and Alice Noxon, introduce the next act in the Pleasant Run Varieties Show, January 9.

Freshman Rosalind Nuchols sings the lead soprano part of the "Flesh Failures" in the verse to "Let the Sunshine In." Other lead vocal parts were sung by seniors Joe McColley and Kathy Phelps.

Debbie Wynn applies pancake make-up to Michelle Wilson before the opening curtain of the Pleasant Run Varieties. Senior Paula Dickenson headed the 15 person crew.

SENIOR

PLAY:

20 seniors
produce comedy

Howe's Senior Play, "Come Over to Our House," was presented in the auditorium on Saturday, November 21. The play, written by former Indianapolis residents Marrijane and Joseph Hayes, concerned a widow, her children, and her romantic life.

Seniors Paula Dickenson and Chuck Hughes were the student directors, while Mrs. Harriette Baker was the faculty advisor. Other teachers who contributed to the play were Mr. Schulyer Geller, who designed the set, and Mr. Charles Pirtle. The Orchestra, conducted by ten senior members, played at all intermissions.

Steve Morgan, as Phillip King, and Amanda Eldridge, played by Jill Jackson, arrive at the Eldridge home after the opening night of Amanda's children's performance in their school's variety show. On their arrival, they find Hildred Reynolds (far left) played by Mimi Mathies, the neighborhood brat.

Barbara Van Hooser and Anita Kroger, who were reporters in the Senior Play, question the Eldridge family concerning Jay's instant success, while Jay, played by David Hagy, protests. Betsy Spice, Stage Crew member, watches from the wings.

Before leaving for his opening night, Jay discusses his future with the Russian conductor, Mr. Sevinsky, portrayed by Gary Conway. At the right, Butch and Marian decide on their own plans for the evening.

In the class of 1971's Senior Play, Judy Zander and Craig Reinhardt, as Lindy Eldridge and Hugo Willifred, dance the boogie-woogie in preparation for their act in the variety show.

DRAMATICS:

one-act plays

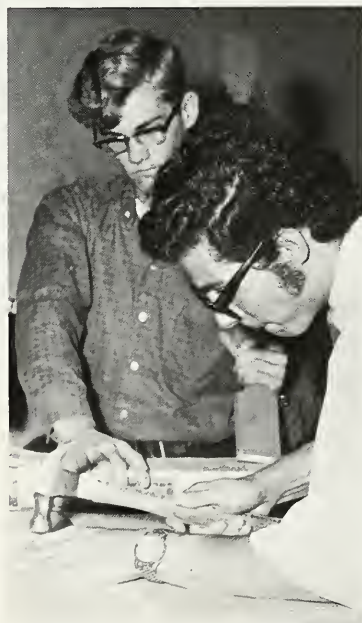

Howe students interested in dramatics had several opportunities to reveal their talents.

One-act plays were presented by the Revelers, which helped members toward their goal of 10 points. Each point represented 10 hours of work. When 100 hours were accumulated on stage, Revelers became eligible for membership in Thespians.

Mrs. Harriette Baker, sponsor of Revelers-Thespians, assisted in the direction and production of the plays. The Stage Crew also had an important part in the production of Howe's presentations. Under the direction of Mr. Charles Pirtle, Stage Crew members designed and constructed scenery, operated the curtains, lights, and sound, prompted actors, and applied make-up.

Mr. Schuyler Geller helps Jeff Braun construct a prop for the Senior Play. Stage Crew members built sets for various plays.

Proper lighting and smooth curtain operation are a necessity for all productions presented on Howe's auditorium stage. Here, Steve Neal tests the light board to make certain that it is functioning properly.

In the fall, the Howe Band presented the half-time shows at the five home football games. Practicing during seventh period, the Band members worked hard to learn formations, music, and marching techniques. In November, the Band marched in the annual Veteran's Day Parade downtown. Junior Bruce Stroud served as drum major. Howe's Pep Band, composed of approximately one-third of the original band, played for the home basketball games. The Stage Band was organized for the first time this year by Mr. McEnderfer. During concert season, the Band concentrated on music played in the Orchestra and Band Spring Concert. In May, the Band performed at the ROTC inspection, and their last performance of the year was at commencement.

Freshman band member Georgia Hughes practices the bassoon, one of the most difficult instruments to master in concert band.

The flute section makes the highest sound of the band. Here, the flutes play a solo during the half-time performance of the Howe-Warren football game.

Mr. Louis McEnderfer returned to school in November after a leave of absence because of an illness. As director, he coaches the band members and teaches them the mood and the feeling of a piece of music.

Howe's Pep Band plays at each of the home basketball games. Junior Gary Walters, solo drummer of the group, uses his ability on the drums to help keep the beat of the chants.

ORCHESTRA:

Mr. Robert Beckley directed Howe's Orchestra for the second year. The group, directed by senior Orchestra members, performed at the Senior Play, in the musical, and for the Spring Band and Orchestra Concert. The 65-piece Orchestra also played a concert tour of the grade schools in Howe's vicinity. The twelve-member string ensemble, in its second year, performed at the Gift and Hobby Show, at Howe's Christmas Program, and for the PRV. New this year was a Woodwind Quintet, composed of the first chairs of the flute, clarinet, oboe, French horn, and bassoon sections. Twenty-three Orchestra members represented Howe in the All-State Orchestra.

Members of Howe's largest vocal group, the Concert Choir, were selected from the Boys' and Girls' Chorus and Choralaire classes. Under the direction of Mr. Frank "Pop" Watkins, the Choir rehearsed during first period in preparation for performing in Christmas programs, the musical "Hello Dolly", and the Spring Music Festival. Fourteen students, singing soprano, alto, tenor, and bass selections from the 18th century, composed the Madrigals. Mr. Robert Bramblett directed the group which presented most of its music to social clubs and churches throughout the city. This year they participated in a "Madrigal Yuletide Feast" in which they wore costumes from the Henry IV period.

Under the direction of Mr. Frank "Pop" Watkins, the alto section rehearses their individual part of a new selection.

Directing the Choir for his thirtieth year, Mr. Frank Watkins emphasizes the importance of putting more feeling into the Choir's various selections of music.

Seniors Jim Sanders, Rex Thomas, and Paul Thomas often accompany the Howe Choir in hopes of adding variety to the numbers which they plan to use in an upcoming performance. They aid in adding instrumental sounds to songs such as "It's Just The Gypsy In My Soul," and "Turn Around, Look At Me." These musicians also provide the Choir with an up-dated version of "This Old Hammer, Killed John Henry."

VOCAL

ENSEMBLES:

boys' concert
club organized

Under the direction of Mr. Thomas Lewis, the Boys' Concert Club was organized this year. This group, composed of 26 members rehearsed every day during fifth period. The Choralaires, the girls' counterpart, was directed by Mr. Frank Watkins. The Choralaires spent many hours practicing music for various performances which included singing for the seniors' Vesper service held on the Sunday preceding commencement. Members of the Boys' and Girls' Ensembles, two specially selected groups of vocalists chosen by audition from those enrolled in music classes, performed for various church functions and social groups as well as participating in the Christmas Program, the Spring Vocal Festival, the All-City Music Festival, and the musical.

From this group girls learn the basics of music.

DANCES:

Japanese characters, lanterns, cherry blossoms, and the theme "Oriental Springtime" set the mood for the 1970 Turn-About Twirl. Couples danced under a pink and white canopy, while the Rick Dawson Band provided the music.

Bruce Dobson was crowned "Mr. Topper" by Jan Cowgill, HILLTOPPER Editor.

"Flight of Apollo 11" was the theme for the Military Ball held in the cafeteria on February 28, 1970. The center-piece for each table consisted of an American flag planted on a miniature moon. The crowning of the Military Ball Queen, Terri Kertes, was executed by Sgt. Harold M. Ecktmann.

The queen was selected from a court of eight ROTC sponsors. Each candidate was escorted by a R.O.T.C. cadet officer.

Between dances at the Military Ball, couples pause to talk and secure decorations to keep as souvenirs of the occasion, a formal dance which is held in the cafeteria. Attendance at the Military Ball was restricted to those enrolled in ROTC.

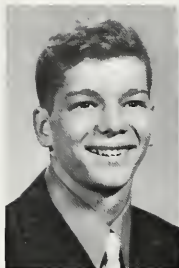

Red roses and the coronation crown are presented by Sergeant Harold Ecktmann to Terri Kertes who was chosen from 8 ROTC sponsors to reign over the dance. Her escort is Tad DeLay.

MILITARY BALL CANDIDATES AND ESCORTS: Diana Watson, Robert Mindach, Judy Zander, Jeff Beeler, Anita Powers, Robert Fawver, Rebecca McWilliams, John Horner, Dana Smith, Ralph Brooks, Donna Reifeis, George Cooper, Terri Poynter, "Tad" DeLay, Teri Kertes, Ken Bruce, Patti Dulin. This dance, sponsored by the ROTC cadets, was attended by 132 couples from Howe and 44 couples from other Indianapolis high schools.

DANCES:

Denny Haygood and Cheryl Mee were crowned "Brown Boy" and "Golden Girl" at the 1970 Brown and Gold Dance, held in the cafeteria on October 17. Marilyn Poynter, as Mae West, and Rob Fawver, as W. C. Fields, crowned the two during the intermission of the opening social event of the school year. Decorations included film clips, directors' megaphones, and posters advertising the 1930's film, "My Little Chickadee." "Your Night Under the Stars" was the theme of the 1971 Sweetheart Ball, sponsored by the TOWER staff. The dance featured Zelda, the gypsy fortune-teller who read tea leaves to advise couples of events in their futures. Suzette Boulais and Jim DeFur were crowned Queen and King of the dance.

Candidates were selected by the members of their class and then voted on by those purchasing publications subscriptions.

Couples standing the "Brown and Gold" danced to the music of the Rick Dawson Sextet. The semi-formal dance, sponsored by the HILLTOPPER staff, opens the social season for Howe students.

Rob Fawver, 1970 graduate, presents Cheryl Mee with a bouquet of red carnations after crowning her "Golden Girl" at the "Brown and Gold". Denny Haygood was crowned "Brown Boy."

COMPETITION:

Howe's Athletic Department offered all students the opportunity to participate, whether they were team members or loyal fans. Open to interested students were intramural basketball and bowling. Girls outstanding in acrobatics competed on the gym team. Strength and stamina, exerted by the different teams through their competition, distinguished exceptional sportsmanship. Through the thrills of winning and disappointments of losing, the team members developed leadership and cooperation with others which they could exhibit proudly in their adult lives.

GAA, GYM TEAM:
gymnasts capture
1970 district title

Under the guidance of Mrs. Sandra Moreland, the Girls' Athletic Association provided any girl a chance to extend her skills through intra-mural competition. Those more highly skilled competed interscholastically in volleyball or gymnastics. The Winter Wonderland Dance, being the annual Christmas sockhop, was co-sponsored by the GAA and Student Council.

An outgrowth of this group, the Girls' Gym Team, was sponsored by Miss Janice Brown. Meets were held between county and state schools.

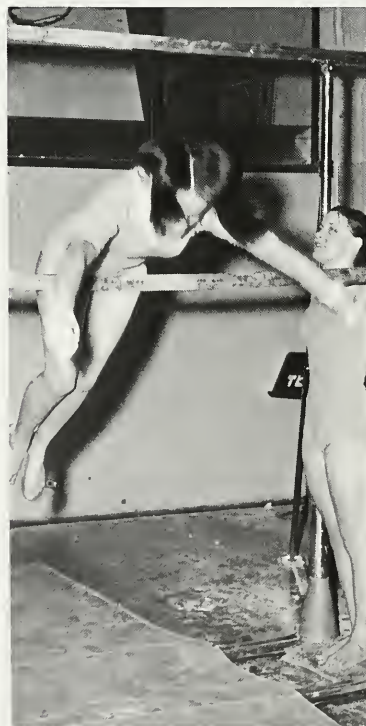

Qualifying in the district meet enabled girls to participate in the state competition.

Last year's team won four dual meets and went on to capture the district title and finally became the mythical state champion.

A 1970 graduate, Betty Rennard won the state all-around championship.

GAA: FRONT ROW—Carol Dodd, Melody Query, Debbie Ramsey, Debbie Abel, Pam Noe, Connie Tillery, Sandy Herren, Debbie Hudelman, Gail Hipsher, Debi Thomas, Beth Mattingly, Terri Elliot, Corina deHerdt, Suzie Canada, Lou Anne Baker, Nancy Watkins, Carol Mount, Judy Bailey, Mel Burnett, Kim Graeber. SECOND ROW—Gayle Becher, Janet Schmidlin, Becky McCafferty, Shelley Summit, Debbie Hannah, Judy Neu, Susie Matthews, Teresa Amonette, June Rainbolt, Chris Fiddler, Vicky Burgess, Kathy Eaton, Margaret Bernd, Donna Callaway, Cathy Hind, Cheryl Koehring, Cathy Cooper, Bev Cross, Karen Crawford, DeeAnne Trulock. THIRD ROW—Sarah Kelley, Connie Chambers, Marcia Rockey, Debra Bray, Lee Brooks, Sharie Gish, Peggy Endicott, Mary Wood, Sandra Thomas, Marla Hagans, Denise Austin, Sherri Doughty, Anita Scharbrough, Shirley Foster, Nicki Simons, Connie Beitz, Carole Poynter, Pat Bowers, Connie Chaplin, Leslie Padden, Lu Ann Hubbard, Elaine Dunn. FOURTH ROW—Mindy Mansfield, Dede Dobson, Ros Nuckols, Kathy Jensen, DeAnne Droeger, Marsha Downey, Shawn Whitridge, Patty Eaton, Julie Jones, Marsha Allgood, Donna Pritchard, Jackie Lee, Jeanie Elsey, Vera Wall, Kathy Fuller, Vicki Steele, Kay Niedenthal, Lou Anne Watson, Nancy Davis, LouAnn Caporale. Julie Jones served as president; DeeAnne Trulock, vice-president; and Connie Beitz, secretary-treasurer.

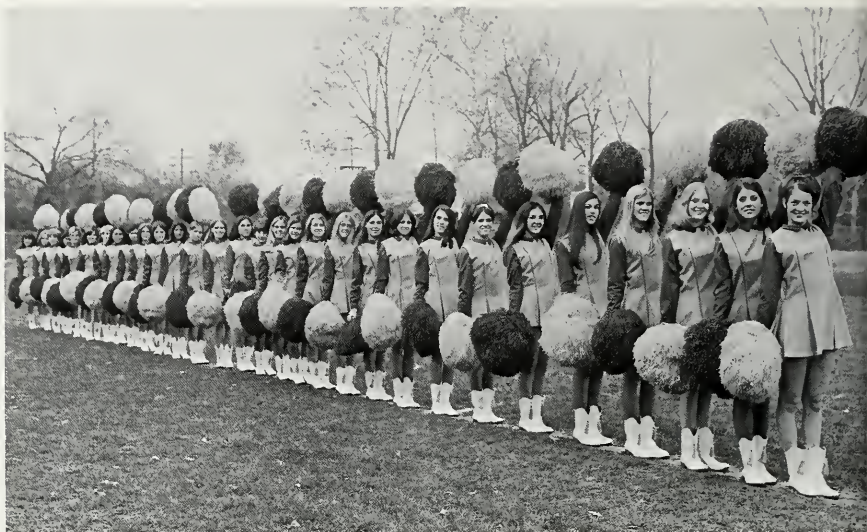

Janis Maudlin practices a hand spring dismount on the balance beam while Marsha Calvert spots. The Girls' Gym Team practiced every Saturday in the Howe gym, except on the Saturdays when the gymnasts have meets.

On the uneven bars, Junior Donna Pritchard demonstrates a back hip circle. Starting in the winter, the team had five dual meets, and were entered in the District Meet.

HALF-TIME PERFORMERS: honeys make new uniforms

Awarded to Howe athletes are white sweaters and gold letters which represent long hours of practice, sacrifice, and outstanding performance in a sport. Ticket-taking, distributing programs, and holding ropes at half-time were among several contributions made by Lettermen. High kicks, intricate dance steps, and a bright smile adorned each member of the Hornet Honeys. They performed lively routines during half-time in new uniforms which they made. Assisting the group was captain Cheryl Walker and sponsor Mrs. Joan McAllister. Performing at home basketball games, the Howe Pep Band added rhythm for lively chants and music for the Hornet Honeys routines. The Pep Band was directed by senior Rick Dawson who was assisted by other members of the band.

Arranging much of the music played and directing the Pep Band, senior Rick Dawson (back to the camera) also helps out in the trumpet section. Composed of about a third of the Howe Band, the Pep Band performs at all home basketball games, and assists the cheerleaders in keeping the fans enthusiastic.

Wearing apparel during half-time routines is not always limited to the Hornet Honeys' uniforms. Costumes add variety to the themes of the performances and sometimes give new ideas for different dance steps.

As a member of the Lettermen Club, Rick Balsbaugh holds the ropes during the half-time at a home basketball game. This is done to keep the crowds from walking on the court.

CHEERS AND CROWNS: girls add excitement

During the summer varsity and reserve squads attended Vicennes' Cheerleading camp which polished their skills and created new techniques. Howe's PTA purchased new brown and gold uniforms for the varsity while the other squads assembled their own. Varsity, reserve, and freshman squads combined their talent to create an atmosphere of pep. Starting the annual succession of Howe queens, Jackie Lee won the title of Jamboree Queen. To DeeAnne Trulock happiness was being chosen as Football Homecoming Queen. She received her crown and necklace at half-time of the Warren Central-Howe game. Betty Hunter was elected from a court of eight girls to become Basketball Homecoming Queen of 1971 at the Howe-Northwest game.

Varsity cheerleaders Bobbi Bergdoll, Vera Wall, Patti Dentler, Debbie Breedlove, Carol Mount, and Terri Medlin promote spirit by performing at a time-out. Perfection of these cheers required after-school practices for the squads. Physical Education teacher Miss Janice Brown supervised their activities.

Senior Ralph Wadsworth portrays the commical "Herbie Hornet". At home games, Herbie assisted the cheerleaders in chants and tumbling.

Seven cheerleaders, including one boy for the first year, led spirit-building yells to boost the morale at the reserve football games held on Mondays.

For the third consecutive year a freshman was elected to serve as Jamboree Queen. Incoming Queen Jackie Lee rode in the procession and participated in the homecoming activities. She was escorted by Mike Becher.

Vice-President of Student Council Paul Thomas awards a necklace to the 1971 Basketball Homecoming Queen, Betty Hunter. She was also presented the crown and flowers by Mr. Charles Ruschhaupt at the Howe-Northwest game.

DeeAnne Trulock was the 1970 Football Homecoming Queen at the home game with Warren Central. Along with crowning ceremonies, a procession of floats circled the field.

INTRAMURALS: coaches, managers provide backing, clean uniforms

Valuable for its advice to the athletic teams at Howe was the coaching staff. These men backed and trained the teams for competition with other schools. There were three new assignments to the coaching staff this year—Mr. David Stewart, Mr. James Lynch in football, and Mr. Philip Brown in golf.

Another indispensable group was the Managers, who cleaned equipment, recorded statistics, and kept the athletic teams in order.

Mr. Charles Fitzgerald, new to Howe this year, was made head manager. Howe sponsored a program of intramural sports for those who either did not have the time or the necessary skills for varsity team sports. The two intramural sports offered at Howe were bowling and basketball.

These sports attracted large numbers of students.

Wrestling coach Mr. Sutton views the finish of a Cross Country meet. He often helps time the runners during the race.

COACHES: Mr. Kelly, Mr. Harpold, Mr. McLeish, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Fitzgerald, Mr. Finkbner, Mr. Arvin, Mr. Miller, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Stutz, Mr. Lynch, Mr. Spears, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Wood, Mr. Sutton, Mr. Brown. These men provided sponsorship and supervision at practice sessions while giving valuable assistance in improving the abilities of the students participating on athletic teams for 200 events held during 180 school days.

Part of the managers' job is to help injured players off the field. Steve Mathis and Don Engleking help Bob Freeman to the bench after he sustained an injury during the game with Warren Central.

Intramural basketball met on Mondays for upperclassmen and Thursdays for freshmen and sophomores. There were approximately ten games in the season, and playoffs.

FOOTBALL: varsity team acquires new coach

Howe's 1970 Varsity Football Team was coached for the first time by former Reserve Coach Mr. David Stewart and Line Coach Mr. Richard Harold. A seasonal record of 6—4 brought Howe fifth place in the final city standings. Varsity player Bob Freeman was named All-City center and received an honorable mention for the All-State team. Other Hornets on the All-City team were linebacker Rick Kutche, defensive back Walter Wren, and tackle Mike Wieneke. Bill Deeter received the Kiwanis Club award for the best mental attitude.

FOOTBALL: freshmen, reserve end with 4—5—1 records

A tough schedule and a loss of players due to a series of injuries accounted for the disappointing season that was experienced by the Junior Varsity Football Team. Coached by Mr. James Arvin, the 30 sophomores and 5 juniors completed the season with a 4—5—1 record.

Coach Arvin commented that guards Dennis Brunner and John Mann and split end Louie Saba were consistently hard players.

The freshmen squad also faced a difficult schedule and completed their season with an identical record of 4—5—1. Larry McCormick and Micky Deane were appointed co-captains of the team.

Coaches Jerry McLeish and James Lynch named John Morgan as the best lineman and Larry McCormick as the team's best back.

CROSS COUNTRY: freshmen win city

Howe's Freshman Cross Country Team defeated fourteen teams to win the City Championship Meet. The Reserves placed fifth and the Varsity, sixth, out of fifteen teams in the City Meet. Varsity runners had one of their best years, winning all but one of their dual meets and defeating eleven teams to win the Northwest Invitational. They also placed fifth out of twenty-one teams in the Sectionals. The Junior Varsity enjoyed the same success, defeating forty-eight of the seventy-two teams they ran. Mr. Billy Wood, coach of the three teams, was "pleased with the runner's performances and particularly proud of the freshmen, who won the City Meet."

BASKETBALL: city's leading scorer, ellis, sets new records

Posting a very respectable regular season of 15 wins and 6 loses, the varsity netmen averaged 69 points a game to gain the second best season record in the city.

Mr. James Stutz again served as head coach of the Hornets.

Howe reached the top four in the City Tourney by winning over Secina and Marshall before losing to Shortridge in the afternoon game at Butler. Starting forward

Tracy Ellis broke a total of seven school records among which was most points scored in one game (44) and most points scored in one season (565).

He was also the city's leading scorer with an average of 25.7 points a game.

In the Sectionals at Ben Davis, Howe suffered a defeat in her first game against a tough Northwest squad who lost to Howe in the regular season 77 to 68.

Coach Dave Stewart's policy of substituting players on the Reserve Basketball Team enabled most of the players to mark time on the court. Starting lineup for the team consisted of netmen Bob Maffett, Joe Heidelman, Dave Bishop, Louis Saba, and Mark Roembke. The Freshman Basketball Team had a record of 5 wins in 14 games. Although the freshmen were inexperienced, Coach Bob Mitchell said that many of the team members were "potential varsity material". Outstanding first year men were Larry McCormick, Scott Erickson, Tim Bergdoll, Rusty Eads, and Tony Saba.

WRESTLING: freshmen have second winning season

Wiley Craft was the Varsity Wrestling Team's leading scorer, while John Boosinger was best in tournaments. John placed second in the City Tournament and fourth in the Sectionals. The team's record of 0—10 was plagued by a long list of injuries.

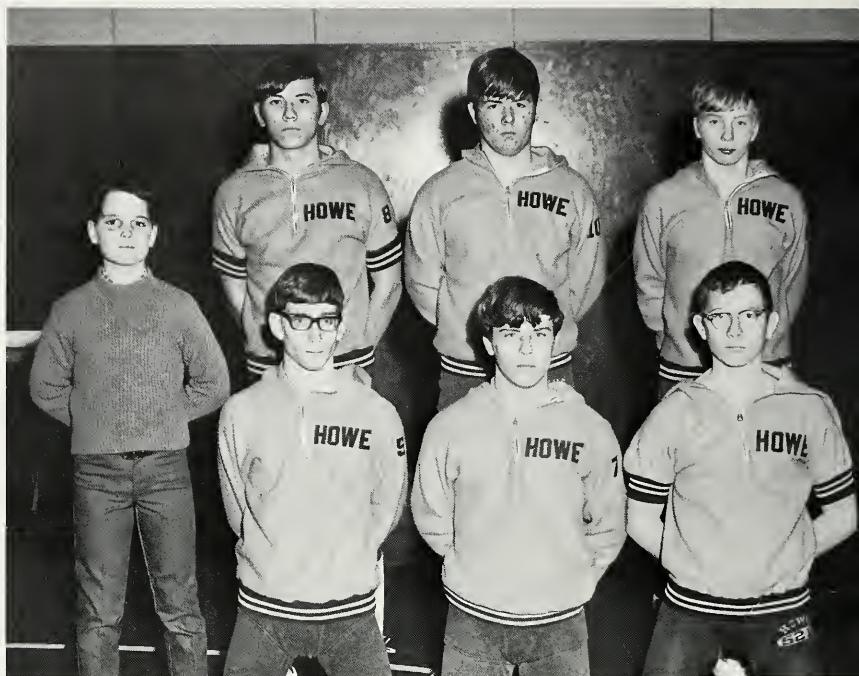

The six man Reserve Wrestling Team had a 1—9 record.

Duane Smoot took the 132-pound City Championship title for the team. Bob Stuart placed 4th in the city competition.

Bob was also the team's leading scorer with 27 points.

The Freshman Wrestling Team had its second consecutive winning season in the school's history, with a 5—3 record for the 1970-71 season.

Jim Mackell was the team's leading scorer with 71 points, next was Mike Hinton with 51. Ninety-eight pound Jim Mackell was also Freshman City Champion.

TRACK: juniors spur cindermen to winning year

Hornet varsity cindermen compiled a winning score roster for 1970 by defeating eleven of nineteen opponents. Senior Gary Hubbard was elected by the twenty-one man team to be captain. Senior Mike Adams earned the "Most Valuable Player Award" for his outstanding performances at all of the meets.

Together with Randy Deane and Garry Hodge, Gary and Mike won the 880-yard relay trophy in the Arlington Invitational Meet.

At that same meet, Howe placed second by defeating four local high schools and being surpassed by only Lawerance Central.

The 1971 Varsity Track Team had over three-quarters of its members return for spring competition.

Mike Adams throws his arms and legs forward in an effort to gain valuable inches in the broad jump. He participated in 6 events.

Each of the three coaches specialized in either sprinting, distance running, or field events.

Senior Gary Hubbard has taken the lead from two Manual runners over the first of the high hurdles. Gary also ran the 880-yard relay and the low hurdles. As in previous years, Gary excelled in the high hurdles more than in any other event. He was able to run them in a blazing time of 15.6 at this meet when Howe won by a score of 86 to 32.

Garry Hodge edges out an Attucks runner in the quarter mile. Garry was very versatile, running the 100 and 220 yard dashes and both relays. Though injured in mid-season, Garry finished the year with a good record.

TRACK: freshmen set city mile-relay record at 3:45.4

Setting several new school records and compiling very successful seasons were the Freshmen and Reserve Track Teams. Track, building agility and muscular coordination, has long been a highly competitive sport.

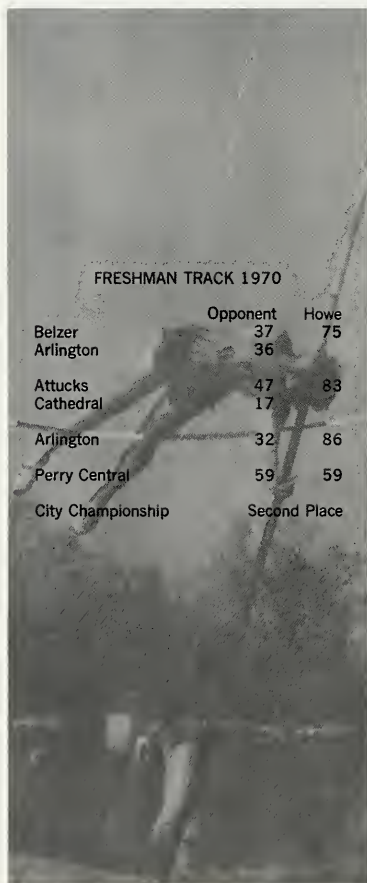

Howe's Freshmen Track Team ended the season with a 3—0—1 record.

In the City Championship, it placed second in a field of 17 teams.

Setting a new city record for the mile relay in 3:45.4 were Darrel Brown, Bob Gary, Keith Flowers, and Dick Kaye. Bob Gray set two new school records for the mile-run, 4:46.9, and the 880, 2:05.9. Another school record was set in the 440 by Dick Kaye in 55.6 seconds. Many of the freshmen also completed on the Junior Varsity Squad. The JV's compiled a successful record of 12 wins and 2 losses. Coaching the teams were Mr. Billy Wood and Mr. Bob Mitchell.

BASEBALL:
varsity team
experiences
winning season

This year's Varsity Baseball Team, led by Captain Mark Miller compiled a winning record of ten wins in nineteen starts.

Howe's team won seven of their first nine games using the experience of returning lettermen

Gary Evans, Bill Fleener, Ray Leach, Mark Miller, Bill Smoot, and Lenny Thornburg.

Starting pitcher Larry Scharborough had a 5—5 season while only Russ Hollenbaugh had a perfect pitching record of 2—0.

Together, Howe's pitchers struckout 117 opponents and gave up an average of three runs per game.

The team's leading hitter was Miller with a .365 average.

The leading scorer was Tom Boyd.

Mark was chosen "Most Valuable Player" and Ray Leach received the "Best Mental Attitude" award.

In a game against Tech, the umpire, intent on his job, keeps count of the number of strikes made by the batter.

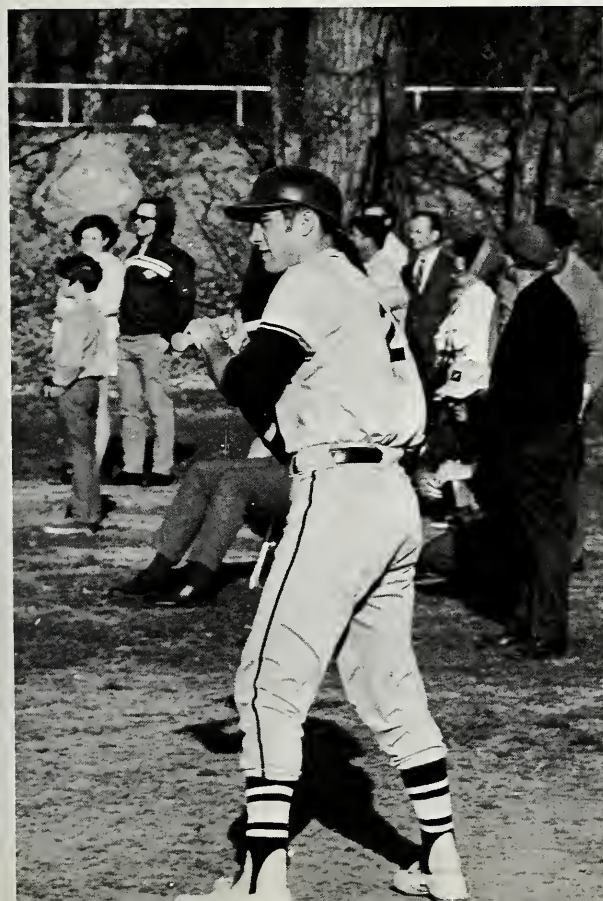

In the last inning, a Howe batter nervously awaits the pitch that will determine the outcome of the varsity game.

Jim Green and Bob Gott trap a Broad Ripple player between 3rd. base and home plate. Jim Green catches the quick toss from the catcher to make an out.

TENNIS: team earns city championship for second year

Coach Ron Finkbinder's Spring Tennis Team won the city tournament with 49 points. Runner-up Scecina had 45 points in what was Howe's biggest tennis victory in many years. Four of the singles and both doubles teams made the finals.

Abe Cardwell and Tim Smith won their singles matches and then combined to win a doubles final.

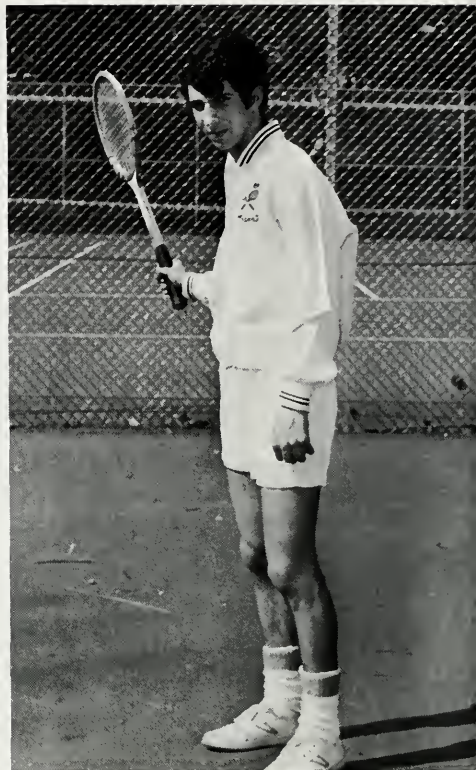

Paul Thomas, Phil Coffin, and George Cooper also placed well.

Howe's young fall team placed second in sectional play. First team doubles was composed of Charles Scott and Jeff Flowers, who reached the semi-finals. Mark Mosher and Stanley Ford participated in the second team doubles.

Playing one of the singles was Kevin Scheib. Paul Thomas won the singles and progressed to the state semi-finals at Pike. Though Paul lost, he was the first tennis player in Howe's history to reach the final matches.

Paul Thomas, number one on the tennis squad, has compiled a record of 48 wins and 6 losses in his three years at Howe.

Abe Cardwell, returning a fore-hand, plays number three for the Hornets. Abe won the city championship as a junior and again as a senior. Many an opponent cringes at the sight of the 6'3" Cardwell.

Junior Charles Scott works to improve his form. He played on the first team doubles in the sectionals last fall, and should be a valuable asset next year.

GOLF: experience was crucial item for successful season

With five of the six varsity golf players returning for the 1970 season, the linksmen opened the new decade with a 10—2 record. Coach Richard McLeish of the Industrial Arts Department filled in the position left by Mr. Don Evans. Suffering defeats to only Northwest and Warren in their scheduled matches, the golfmen placed second in the Sectionals and fifth in the City.

Individually, Bruce Bottom placed fourth in the Sectionals shooting a 75. The golf team elected Dave Martin to serve as its captain.

Receiving the sportsmanship award was "Happy" Personett, and voted most-valuable-player was Bruce Bottom.

The 1971 squad was minus four of the varsity players because of graduation. Dan Richardson and Jeff Moore were the only returning lettermen.

Bruce Bottom firmly strokes the ball. This is an important part of golf since half of the score usually comes from the greens.

The golf shot is basically composed of three parts, the back-swing, the down-swing (as demonstrated by Bruce Bottom), and the follow-through.

Jeff Moore tries his hand at putting on a fairway at the Pleasant Run Golf Course. A wood or an iron would be a more common selection since they will usually give more distance.

Senior Dave Martin begins his follow-through on a wedge shot which can be seen climbing its way up towards the elevated ninth green. After carefully surveying his lie and his path to the green, Dave has decided that it would be much easier to chip the ball underneath the low hanging branches rather than flying the ball through a small opening and chancing his shot being deflected by one of the limbs.

PEOPLE:

Adjusting to a larger school, hunting for lockers, and not disclosing insecurity to upperclassmen were all problems facing freshmen.

Sophomores, enthusiastic of no longer being the youngest class, began the trend of writing term papers and received their class rings.

Juniors experienced the frustrations of college entrance examinations and of raising enough money for their prom.

Anticipation mounted for a senior year filled with numerous activities which created class unity and loyalty.

FRESHMEN: largest class to

diploma plan

Size was a freshman problem! The largest class ever to enter Howe found its 370 girls and 350 boys in the midst of a locker shortage with some instances of three and four students sharing the same locker.

Miss Maryon Welch, freshman counselor, and orientation teachers attempted to guide each student into courses which satisfy their individual goals.

A new diploma plan was begun this year—one which dropped the academic, general, vocational, and fine and practical arts program designation. Becoming a part of the life at Howe, freshman elected representatives to the Student Council and nominated candidates for the Homecoming Queens, Jamboree Queen, and the Turnabout Twirl.

Freshman football, basketball, wrestling, and track, started many boys toward a four year career of athletics. After school clubs geared specifically for the freshmen such as the Subset Club aided in extending the learning process.

Freshman Cheerleaders for the 1971 season were Susie Matthews, Shelly Summit, Judy Neu, Sandra Thomas, Mary Wood. The girls were chosen by a group composed of 6 Varsity Cheerleaders, 6 teachers, and 6 Student Council representatives, who judged the girls on gymnastic skills and enthusiasm.

Freshmen leave the auditorium after listening to various faculty members speak on subjects of student interest.

Sophomores, now accustomed to high school life, found unexpected newness in their curriculum.

Geometry students used a new textbook written by Mrs. Marie Wilcox, a former Howe math department head.

Formaldehyde presented a new sensation to biology students' noses.

In the English Department, the 3g classes wrote literary research themes instead of the customarily-required vocational themes.

A new elective for sophomores offered by the Social Studies Department was Metropolitan Society.

During the school year, sophomores also contributed new talent to school activities.

Their Student Council representatives constructed the first sophomore class float, and two girls were crowned queens: Jackie Lee, Jamboree; and DeeAnne Trulock, Football Homecoming.

The sophomore class added outstanding students in various fields to the student body.

Paul Gerzon and Albert Rossi participated on the Quiz Team while Betsy Spice was the Student Director for the Senior Play.

JUNIORS:

bruce stroud directs marching band in home game activities, parades

Climaxing their year with the advancement to senior status, members of the junior class experienced many phases of high school activities throughout the year. Several language students Competed for the opportunity to study abroad, and six participants were selected to study our state's government at Hoosier Boys' State and Girls' State.

Participation in athletics was a part of many juniors' lives. Bob Freeman was named to the All-City Football Squad, and Dan Brown was a first-string basketball player.

Bruce Stroud directed the Howe Marching Band at home football games and in parades.

Bob Eckert and Mark Reasoner formed half of Howe's Quiz Team which competed on T. V. quiz shows.

Becky Davis, Connie Bruce, Marilyn Poynter, and Terri Maier were juniors who served as ROTC sponsors.

Initiations into honor societies, including National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll, signified achievement in academics and publications.

Plans for the Junior Prom were completed by the Junior Student Council representatives.

Junior counselor Mr. Rex Anderson helps Mary Doyle revise her four-year program. Before entering Senior Homeroom next fall, Mary, as a prospective graduate, must have earned at least 23 credits. If she meets this requirement, Mr. Anderson will sign her application for admission to senior status.

ROTC Sponsor Becky Davis and her escort John Bishop patiently await the crowning of the Queen of the Northwest Military Ball.

Linda Lee, along with other members of the Howe girls' drum team, entertains the crowd during the Marshall football halftime program on September 11.

SENIORS:

Almost every student, between his enrollment and graduation, has found himself wondering what it will be like after he is graduated from high school. While members of the class of '71 listened to commencement speeches being delivered and awaited the moment when they would finally receive their diplomas, memories of Senior Homeroom, the Mock Elections, the Senior Play, and Senior Week were probably prominent in their thoughts. Perhaps, too, they contemplated the decisions they had made concerning their future objectives during the last year, most rationalizing that graduation is not an end, but rather a beginning.

SENIORS: class chooses shades of green, yellow

In the fall, four boys and four girls were chosen to lead the Class of 1971. Steve Applegate, president, accepted the gavel at the formal installation of officers held on October 20, 1970 in homeroom. In addition to the requirements of their offices, each officer worked one period each day in the Senior Office. They also were responsible for decorating the Senior Christmas Tree. The Constitution Committee, representing each homeroom, amended the Senior Constitution to allow each office to be open to either boy or girl. The Colors Committee chose forest green, light green, and yellow as the 1971 class colors.

EVENING DIVISION: students finish requirements

Learning at Howe was not restricted to the daylight hours.

Evening classes were held to benefit those persons sixteen years of age or older who were not enrolled in another high school.

Directed by Mr. David Baugh, classes were conducted Monday through Thursday evenings from six to nine-thirty. Individual classes met for one hour and forty minutes enabling the evening school pupils to spend as much time in one particular class as the daytime students.

The number of credits taken by individual students ranged from one to four, and in order to graduate students must have had accumulated at least four credits from Howe's Evening Division.

Mrs. Alberta Follis, Evening Division secretary, prepares a transcript for a recent graduate to be mailed to a prospective employer.

staff revitalizes

It was a year of "half" pica rulers, broken typewriters, and lost grease pencils. But it was also a time of change. Revitalizing every aspect of the yearbook, members of the '71 staff spent many hours in room 240 where the production of the HILLTOPPER was accomplished through their cooperative efforts and the assistance of several concerned professionals. Special recognition should be given to advisor Mr. Edward Kuonen who provided constructive suggestions in times of indecision and always seemed to find the right solution to any difficulty that was encountered. I would also like to express my appreciation to Mr. James Shields, owner of Tower Studios, who provided our publication with excellent photographic services and Mr. William Wright who served as an invaluable graphic arts consultant. Jan Cowgill, Editor-in-Chief.

PROGRESS:

Participating in activities including plays, classes, mock elections, clubs, and dances, competing in sports, and associating with people created experiences which would leave deeply engraved memories for Howe's students.

With the assistance of capable teachers and administrators, and relationships with other students, they were better able to identify themselves in society and become aware of life around them.

After high school, jobs, the service, or college offered a continued progression into a new and rewarding life.
